

Speaker Biography

Victoria A. Archer Lawyer

Gledhill Larocque

Victoria is a lawyer with the firm of Gledhill Larocque in Edmonton, Alberta and has practiced almost exclusively in the area of condominium law for the past 25 years. She has represented Condominium Owners, Condominium Corporations and Condominium Developers.

Vicky is a long-term resident of Edmonton. Prior to obtaining her Law Degree from the University of Alberta, Victoria was a teacher with the Edmonton Public School Board.

Tel: 780.465.4852

archer@gledhill-larocque.com

She has been a Condominium Owner and has served as a member of the various Condominium Boards of Directors. As such, she is very familiar with the unique situations challenging both Unit Owners and Condominium Boards in the Province from a long-term practical, as well as a legal, perspective.

She is a past Board Member of The Canadian Condominium Institute - North Alberta Chapter continues to be active as a volunteer Instructor for the educational program offered by the Institute.

Victoria has been an instructor in condominium law for the Alberta Bar Admission courses and has served as a panel member and chairperson for numerous sessions on Condominium issues offered by the Legal Education Society of Alberta and the Edmonton Bar Association.

She has been called upon to give expert testimony on Alberta condominium law to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

She volunteered for many years with Continuing Education as a instructor for the Law for the Layperson series, developing the curriculum and speaking on Condominium Issues.

She served as a member of the Government's working committee through the previous amendments to the Condominium Property Act that became effective in 2000 and was a member of the committee established by Service Alberta in 2009 to advise the Government on condominium issues and assist in the legislative review process.

Vicky continues to be actively involved with the Government in seeking improvements to the Condominium Property Act and in working on the development of the Condominium Property Regulations.