

Speaker Biography

Angeline.Webb@cancer.ab.ca

Angeline Webb
Public Policy Advisor and Manager
Canadian Cancer Society

Angeline Webb is the Director of Health Policy and Health Promotion with the Canadian Cancer Society, where she has been engaged in health policy development and health promotion programming for the last 14 years. She develops, implements, and administers all health policy development and health promotion programming for the Canadian Cancer Society in Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Nunavut, the Northwest Territories as well as at the federal level. Angeline's focus is population health and healthy public policy with most of her attention devoted to tobacco reduction policy development.